

Hong Kong's Role and Importance as an International Centre for Business

2023 COLLOQUIUM ON
INTERNATIONAL LAW

Navigating the current
International Legal Order

Mr Hans Michael Jebsen BBS
Chairman
Jebsen Group

Hong Kong: Bridging Mainland China and the World

- Strategic geographical location
- International Business Centre –
Dynamic urban environment
- Diversity facilitating cross-cultural understanding
- Trade and Logistics Hub
- Diverse Financial and Professional services
- Resilient, multilingual and highly educated work force

Hong Kong: The Super Connector

- ‘One Country, Two Systems’ policy – high degree of autonomy
- Basic Law – provides legal framework for governance
- CEPA – enhances economic cooperation
- China’s Belt & Road Initiative – strengthens infrastructure connectivity
- Independent Judiciary – Rule of Law provides stable business environment
- Greater Bay Area – facilitates economic cooperation and connectivity
- Free-Market Economy – free flow of capital, goods and services
- Low Tax Regime – a transparent and well establish legal system

2023 COLLOQUIUM ON
INTERNATIONAL LAW

Navigating the current
International Legal Order

Jebsen Group Guangzhou office Now and 100 years ago

China International Centre, Guangzhou

Shameen, Guangzhou

2023 COLLOQUIUM ON
INTERNATIONAL LAW

Navigating the current
International Legal order