

Organisers

AAIL FOUNDATION

Seminar

Individual Responsibility for State Breaches of Investment Law

 30 SEP 2026
(Wednesday)

Seminar: 18:30 – 19:30
Drink Reception: 19:30 – 20:00

 The Former French Mission Building
1 Battery Path, Central, Hong Kong

CPD Point being applied for

Can international investment law stop shielding the people behind State wrongdoing?

This seminar explores a provocative question at the frontier of investment law: when States breach investment protections, should the individuals who planned or enabled those acts also be held accountable? Moving beyond compensation and enforcement against States alone, the discussion examines whether concepts from international criminal law can inspire a new model of personal responsibility in investment disputes.

Free Registration

Enquiries: events@aail.org

Asian Academy of International Law (AAIL)

AAIL is an independent and non-profit making body set up in Hong Kong to further the studies, research and development of international law in Asia and beyond. Specialising in providing training programme relating to international law and platforms for discussion about topical subjects of international law. Visit <https://aail.org> for more information.

Speaker

Olga Boltenko FCIArb

Research Fellow

Asian Academy of International Law

Barrister

Prince's Chambers

Ms Olga Boltenko FCIArb is a barrister and arbitrator with decade-long of experience in cross-border dispute resolution and international arbitration. Most recently with Fangda Partners in Hong Kong, Ms Boltenko has also practised with leading arbitration teams in Paris and Singapore.

With a particular focus on public international law, investor-State dispute resolution, and commercial arbitration, Ms Boltenko has acted as legal counsel in investor-State disputes under the auspices of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the ICSID, the SCC, the ICC, the LCIA, and in various capacities in dozens of commercial disputes in a wide array of industries including oil and gas, mining, infrastructure, construction, telecommunications and pharmaceuticals, across Asia and beyond.

Ms Boltenko FCIArb teaches arbitration and investment law at The University of Hong Kong and at the Royal University of Law and Economics in Phnom Penh. She has a growing arbitrator practice and is listed on most regional arbitration panels.

